

Happy New Year to all,

Over the next 2-3 weeks we will be rotating some staff holiday's for a well-earned rest.

It may mean (but unlikely) a day delay in us making and dispatching the order. Good news though – If you are happy to order NOW and don't mind an extra day delay between this period then you will receive a 20% discount.

Simply add code YIPPEE holiday 2019 in the coupon field of the shopping cart and 20% discount will be automatically deducted on all of our products.

We do hold some stock so if you are wanting a bean bag urgently please ring us or send an email (info@beanbag.co.nz) to see if we have what you want in stock.

Many thanks and roll on 2019

Cheers from Bean Bags and Beyond.
